

iGirl is a lighthearted, two-day workshop that prepares 9-11 year old students who identify as girls* for the multimedia pressure-cooker they'll soon encounter. Saleema Noon and her iGirl team tackle topics including puberty, safety on the internet, healthy body image, and how to be assertive in even the toughest situations.

NEW Winter/Spring 2020 workshops!

outline

i am my own BFF

Celebrate your strengths and feel great about your unique self.

i think my body's a beauty

Bodies in the media are make-believe. We'll help you see how all of us are gorgeous in our own way.

i know the facts of life

Learn the real deal about puberty and brush up on your body science.

i get the 'net

Instagram, selfies and safety online ... we've got you covered.

i have healthy relationships

Friends, family, and [sigh] dating someday — let's make sure you know what you want and deserve.

i am the best i can be

Get the low-down on what you need to do to reach your personal best, both now and when you're 90.

i expect respect

Deal with friendship challenges, bullying and peer pressure in a way that works using — you guessed it — “i” statements.

Non-binary and gender creative students are also welcome. Please consult with facilitator prior to workshop.*
